

DOCUMENT DISTRIBUTION SOLUTIONS

SOLUTIONS DATA SHEET

ALL YOUR BUSINESS DOCUMENTS TRANSMITTED ELECTRONICALLY!

B2BE's document distribution solution allows intelligent routing of documents so they're sent from your organisation electronically and B2BE handles the distribution methodology based on the defined approach set by your organisation or your organisation's clients.

SOLUTION OVERVIEW

B2BE has the capability to send your documents via: EDI, post, email and facsimile or online. The multi-faceted approach means your organisation can send data to B2BE and B2BE will route the documents based on the defined approach. The approach can be determined using data within the files or you can use the B2BE document routing solution to configure how the recipient will receive your organisations documents.

B2BE can take away the complexity and cost of managing all the different approaches. If you combine this with the B2BE web portal to improve visibility it also means all the documents are online and can be archived and accessed by you and your trading partners.

RELATED SOLUTIONS

If you're looking for a way to streamline, automate and help drive down document distribution costs B2BE offer a range of solutions to do this in part or entirely.

Document routing

B2BE's document routing solution means you can empower your organisation to be more responsive in the management of how your trading partners receive their documents. Easy to configure online interfaces. Configure the way your organisation's clients receive invoices or statements, for example in a matter of seconds.

Document transmission

B2BE's document transmission solution means you can automate all the documents your organisation sends to its trading partners via B2BE. B2BE automatically takes the data and based on a set of rules, or based on the document distribution solution configuration, will send the document to your trading partners.
